Report of School Board.

To the Citizens of Newton:

We hereby submit the annual report of our schools for the year ending February 15, 1910.

Our schools have had a prosperous year in most respects.

The teachers were all the same as last year, which was beneficial alike to teacher and pupil. It is certainly a great drawback, for a time, in school work when we are obliged to change teachers.

Our teachers have given us faithful, conscientious work.

We are much gratified with the improvement in pupils not being tardy as much as in former years.

We again urge parents to visit our schools and learn for themselves what their children are doing. In one school we find a term which no parent visited and in another ten weeks passed with no visit from a parent. We fully realize if parents could visit our schools more, in many instances there would be fewer, and kindlier criticisms.

The school house at the Junction has been shingled and other repairs made as voted. There have been small repairs on other buildings as needed.

We doubt not the School District will continue to appropriate money especially for repairs, so it will not be necessary to transfer any considerable amount from the school money.

The Grammar School was in charge of Alice E. Foss, who labored faithfully for her pupils, and good results were accomplished. A class of thirteen was graduated from this school last June.

The Village Primary School was taught by Margaret M. Ingalls, who fully sustained her good record of last year. The little folks in this school work with right good will that is pleasant to witness.

Rowe's Corner School, in charge of Hattie L. Parker, enjoyed its usual success. She labored to make it profitable and pleasant for the children. The attendance during the winter term was considerably broken because of scarlet fever.

The Junction School was taught by Josie B. Caler and the high standard of last year was sustained. Her work is all very thoroughly done. Each child is helped to understand perfectly every subject he or she takes. Her discipline is of the best. The loyal support most of the parents have given her must, indeed, be gratifying.

Respectfully submitted,

HARLEY A. RANNEY,
ELVIRA R. DART,
School Board.
